Research shows that it typically takes 15 or more years to implement a new evidence based practice. This is an issue for all hospitals and data supports that Nebraska is no different.

The Nebraska Perinatal Quality Improvement Collaborative (NPQIC) will bring together perinatal stakeholders from across the state to gather and identify opportunities for improvement, as well as learn about evidence-based best practices and quality improvement strategies.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This conference is intended for physicians, advance practice nurses, nurses, and hospital administrators specializing in family medicine, obstetrics, and pediatrics.

TOPICS

Prevention of Cytomegalovirus
